Lives and works in Florence where she was born.

She studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Florence.

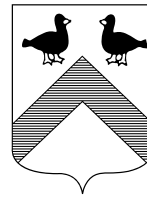

She has been exhibiting in Italy and abroad since the 1960s, and her works are in public and private collections the world over.

This exhibition shows paintings from a series of work characterized by narrative content developed from almost twenty years of research from the 1990s to 2010.

These works representing scenes of theaters and other interiors have predominantly dark tones but are never in darkness.
